

2 Min Review: Robert S. Duncanson, View of Cincinnati, Ohio from Covington, Kentucky

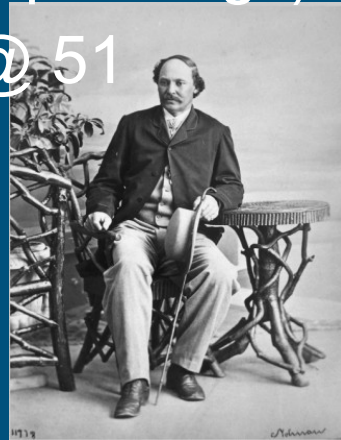

Background of Artist

- ❖ Robert Seldon Duncanson: born ~ 1821 in Fayette, New York (near Seneca Falls); Family moved to Monroe, MI
- ❖ 1st African-American artist to get international acclaim
- ❖ self-taught (copied prints + painting portraits)
- ❖ 1841: he pursues a career as a fine artist in Cincinnati, Ohio (a regional art center leaning to abolitionism)

Background of Artist 2

- ❖ Abolitionists loved Duncanson
- ❖ After 1850: in a group (defined Ohio River Valley style)
- ❖ toured Europe in 1853
- ❖ By early 1860s he moved to Montreal(bc of civil war), then left for Britain in 1865(exhibited several important paintings)
- ❖ He died in 1872 in Detroit after having a seizure @ 51
- ❖ Duncanson's work fell into obscurity for yrs

The Art

- ❖ Title: View of Cincinnati, Ohio from Covington, Kentucky
- ❖ Made in 1850
- ❖ Medium: Oil on canvas (couldn't get size(sorry))
- ❖ Ohio River separated the Slave state of Kentucky from the more industrialized, Free state of Ohio (slavery was banned since 1802)
- ❖ When the Ohio river freezes, slaves cross to go to Ohio

Thank

You!