

The Renaissance in Northern Europe - Rococo, Neoclassicism, and Romanticism (20-23)

The Renaissance in Northern Europe

- Smol
- More realistic
 - Oil paint
- @ 15th cent.: Gothic & less influenced by classics
- @ 16th cent.: more aware of italians
- Matthias Grünewald: Religious scenes
- Albrecht Dürer: naturalistic detail [north] & theoretical[South]
- Hans Holbein the Younger: Henry VIII

“the advantage of being in close proximity to ancient Roman works”

Baroque Art

- late 16th century -> mid-18th century
 - More energetic style
 - Political conflicts were larger
 - Catholic Church wanted influence
 - “Divine right” & super-luxurious elites
 - Enlightenment
 - Rich who made artworks popular

Baroque Art_(part 2)

- Chiaroscuro: exaggerated contrasts between light and dark
 - Caravaggio
 - used lower-class individuals in art 🤢
- Artemisia Gentileschi
 - Adapted Caravaggio's techniques
- Rembrandt van Rijn

Baroque Art_(part 3)

- Gianlorenzo Bernini(theratre)
- Reached its peak in France(Louis XIV)
 - Model for other monarchs
- Salon
 - picking & supporting artists
- King Philip IV(Spain)
 - Copied from France
 - Diego Velázquez(apprentice from Bernini)
 - Making figures from patches of color(Impressionism)

I thank

k

You!