

Modernism at Home and Abroad (19-20)

By: Matija Benko

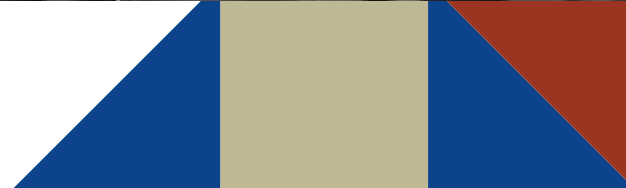

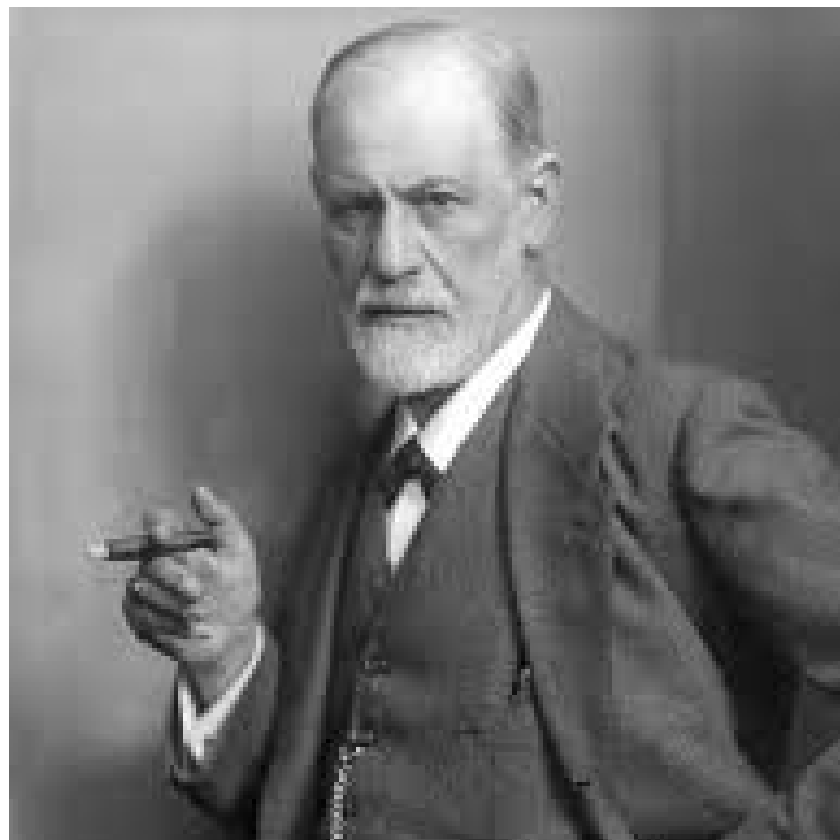

MODERNISM AT HOME AND ABROAD

- Modernism: efforts of artists to cope with fast changes everywhere
- artists wanted to break from old traditions & experiment
- Literary modernism:
 - direct presentation of experience, heavy use of language, symbolism, & casual style
 - original, non-rhyming forms and musical or conversational style
- T. S. Eliot's The Waste Land defied old use of poetry
- F. Scott Fitzgerald was influenced (person is the focal point)
 - philosophical concerns mentioned

Sigmund Freud

- challenged beliefs about
 - human development & desire
 - more urbanization and loneliness
 - destruction of traditional ideas of home, country, and region
 - How WWI was bad
